WILL ESTABLISH OFFICE FOR COMPANY IN SEATTLE.
 T. P. Morehead, vice president of the H. L. Stevens Construction company, left Wednesday for Seattle to establish a branch office of the company. Mr. Morehead has been here during the past winter in charge of the construction work on the Juarez race track. He prepared the estimates of the Anson Mills building, which were successful in getting the contract for his company. Mr. Morehead has been a member of the Country club since he came to El Paso and an enthusiastic member of the club's golf team.

Albert Stacy, manager of the Bassett Lumber company at Douglas, is here today on business.

Third Week of Our 29th Anniversary Sale

For the remainder of this, the third week of our 29th Anniversary Sale, many special features have been planned that will make a trip here, either as a shopper or visitor, one of great interest. Anniversary values, in great variety, are to be found in every department. We mention especially, for tomorrow—

Another Extra

Special

Trimmed Hats

At Less Than Half Price

Stylish millinery at 1-2 price would be an unusual offer for the third week of 29th Anniversary Sale. But, we do even better than that. Things In the Shops Worth Knowing About

The next time you have company just give them Smith's ice cream and your meal is a success.

A real delicacy is Japanese crab meat. Introduced by us in El Paso for the first time this year, very popular in the east, makes a splendid salad.—Jackson's.

Smith's ice cream is growing more popular every day. Ice cream better than Smith's is not made.

When you want candies and ice cream out of the ordinary visit Wood's confectionery, North Oregon street.

Give the children plenty of good pure milk. If you get it from the El Paso Dairy you get the best.

When you want ice cream or ices for a reception or dinner just phone the Smith Ice Cream Co.

We have fresh home made salads every day in our delicatessen department. Come in and try them.—Jackson's, phone 353.

All ladies' traveling and shopping bags at one-third off at Hixson's this week.

We are having a splendid run on Mrs. Dan Kelly's home made cakes, many housewives pronounce them the best cakes they have ever eaten.—Jackson's, phone 353.

Nothing so good as good milk. The El Paso Dairy kind.

There is no argument to the ice cream question. Demand Smith's, if you can't get it phone us.

The El Paso Dairy company supplies you with the best and purest milk in existence.

When you want ice cream just say Smith's. If you can't get it, phone the Smith Ice Cream Co.

When you get milk from the El Paso Dairy you get the milk perfect.

Wait and watch for Springer's specials in groceries. See Friday's Herald for genuine bargains.

Drink plenty of pure milk these days and order it from the El Paso Dairy. Both phones.

CATTLE ENTRIES.

Two thousand, five hundred head of cattle consigned to the Palomas Land & Cattle company were brought over the line at Columbus, N. M., Wednesday morning. There were no entries at El Paso.
